Intro to Yoga Therapy

Instructor: Michele Lawrence

On our first two days together, we will overview the expectations and outline of the course, get to know each other through group exercises and ice-breakers and discuss the pancamaya kosha model and well as other frameworks for understanding and assessing individuals. We will also outline and work in groups to understand the four basic guiding principles of yoga therapy.

Monday Wednesday September 14-16, 2020

Ayurvedic Yoga Therapy

Instructor: Marisa Laursen

This course is designed for Yoga teachers to advance their knowledge and training in both Yoga and Ayurveda. Participants will be introduced to classical Yoga therapy, which is based on an understanding of Ayurveda. Students will specifically be introduced to the energetics of Yoga asana and how Yoga classes can be adapted to bring physiological balance to the body. Participants will also take a deep journey of healing inside themselves, exploring their own Ayurvedic constitution.

Thursday Saturday, September 17-19, 2020

Intro to Yoga of Recovery

Instructor: Durga Leela

This is the first comprehensive course to combine Ayurveda and Yoga with traditional recovery tools to offer a more holistic mind, body, spirit approach to addiction and self-destructive behaviors. This course is for therapists, social workers, addiction counselors, sponsors, yoga teachers, Ayurvedic practitioners etc. Anyone interested in a more holistic and complete view of the problem and its solution. Bringing the west (12 Steps) and the East (Yoga and Ayurveda) together offers us a truly empowering approach to counseling those who embark on a program of recovery. It is the evolution of the solution. Upon completion of the course you will have the skills to introduce the healing potential of the holistic sciences of Ayurveda and Yoga into your own life and those around you.

Sunday Thursday, September 20-24, 2020

Functional Yoga Therapy™ Preparatory Skills and Tools

Instructor: Maria Mendola

This module explores advanced anatomy and its relationship to physical movement; along with practical treatment applications. The human body will be studied as a sacred temple with all of its myriad complexities for both assessment and individualized therapeutic application. Participants will be guided in teachings pertaining to advanced postural assessment, range of motion, basic muscle strength & flexibility testing, practical Ayurvedic concepts related to the assessment and treatment process, understanding of the client's emotional anatomy and training in practitioner sensitivity & awareness. Participants will both experience and facilitate all assessment techniques taught, through this gaining a more thorough understanding of specific symptomatic presenting issues, while maintaining the greater focus of the client as a fully integrative whole human being.

September 2020- January 2021: 50 hour home study program

There are 2 main components to this home study assignment:

1. Case assessments: Using the tools provided in session 1, conduct case assessments for 3 clients. For each client, interview them, assess their needs and situation, and provide a personalized yoga therapy plan to help them. Complete a yoga therapy plan form for each client and then complete a short write up about your experience of doing it, how it felt for you and what you have learned in the process. In addition to your 3 clients, assess yourself and develop a personalized yoga therapy program. Write up your personal assessment and your experience of following it.
2. Write a research paper on a topic related to Yoga Therapy. The topic can be your choice (e.g. Cancer, Depression, etc.) Provided in your manual is a guideline for areas of consideration in your research paper.

Arrive on January 31 anytime in the afternoon to get settled. No formal program scheduled on 1/31.

Monday Wednesday, February 1-3, 2021

Yoga for Depression & Anxiety

Instructor: Amy Weintraub

For thousands of years, yogis have understood what current research in neurobiology and clinical observations are demonstrating that, working with a body and breath-based practice, we can manage our moods. LifeForce Yoga interweaves the power of an ancient discipline with current scientific findings to help you release what's no longer serving you without a story attached! In this 3-day training, you will learn and practice breathing exercises, easy postures, guided meditations, and other experiential yogic tools for mood management that are not often taught in regular yoga classes but are useful in working therapeutically with individuals and groups.

Thursday Saturday, February 4-6, 2021

Yoga for Chronic Pain

Instructors: Neil (virtual) & Lisa Pearson

Yoga therapists require an understanding of the pathophysiology of common disease processes in order to provide individualized yoga instructions and ensure the safety of students and clients. Equally important is a clear understanding of tissue healing and the neurophysiology of pain. Over three days, you will explore common injuries, diseases and pain from a bio psychosocial perspective. This knowledge will be integrated with the wisdom of yoga, enhancing and broadening your perspective of yoga as a preventative and rehabilitative modality.

Sunday Tuesday, February 7-9, 2021

Yoga for Cancer

Instructor: Laura Kupperman

One out of two men, and one out of three women will receive a cancer diagnosis in their lifetime; virtually all of us have been touched by cancer in some fashion. The good news is that research increasingly demonstrates the benefits of yoga to help ease many of the symptoms associated with cancer treatment, and there is a growing need for yoga teachers skilled in this area. Using the Pancha Maya model we will learn to skillfully work with survivors of any type of cancer, at any stage of recovery. We will explore how yoga can positively impact the physical effects of cancer and its treatment, and also how to address the energetic, mental, emotional, and spiritual components of a cancer diagnosis.

Wednesday – Friday, February 10-12, 2021

Yoga for Grief

Instructor: Antonio Sausys

Grief is the body's response to loss, any loss. When going through any given condition, we not only lose the 'dream of a healthy life' but we also experience the loss related to the restrictive nature of the condition's symptoms. It is then important to identify some symptoms related to grief and to learn ways to address them. In this workshop participants will learn about the physical symptoms of grief, its psycho-neuro-immunological bases and a set of simple Yoga exercises to address them while aiding the psychological transformation of grief into a resource of personal growth. A comparative analysis is made of the Western and Eastern models of the Psyche stating the importance of the psychic centers' involvement both physically and emotionally and specially in regards to the yogic theory of Attachment. The methodology alternates theoretical lectures with experiential work.

Saturday – Monday, February 13-15 2021

Healing with the Chakras

Instructor: Nischala Joy Devi

In Healing with the Chakras, Nischala Devi, weaves compassionate knowledge of the physical to the intuitive wisdom of the mystical for a complete understanding of who we really are. Within us there are whirling vortices of energy, chakras. These chakras contain valuable information about the mundane as well as the subtle aspects of our every action and thought. Connected through channels that flow up and down our spines, the Chakras infuse vitality and knowledge to every facet of our being. With the stresses of everyday life, the energetic flow is often hindered. The result is lethargy, anxiety, depression or even disease. Observing and adjusting images of ourselves, we are able to release old paradigms from the subtle bodies and gain control of our very life force. As these pathways are unlocked, the pent up energy effortlessly flows, we are able to heal everything from simple ailments to the life threatening diseases.
